

Passengers

32K

Total Revenue

£741.92K

Average Ticket Price

£23.44

Peak Travel Time

18:45

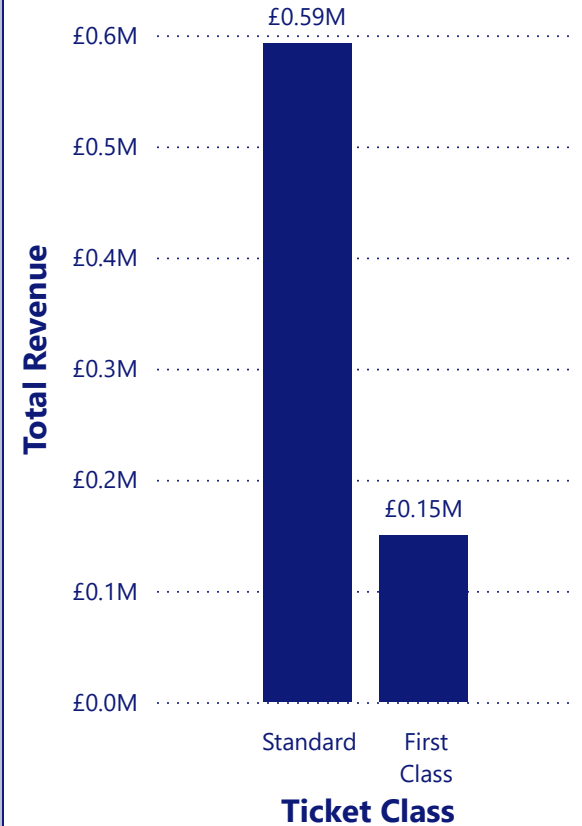

Top 5 Most Popular Routes

Route	Passengers
Manchester Piccadilly to Liverpool Lime Street	4,628
London Euston to Birmingham New Street	4,209
London Kings Cross to York	3,922
London Paddington to Reading	3,873
London St Pancras to Birmingham New Street	3,471

Total Revenue by Ticket Type

Total Revenue by Ticket Class

Reason for Delay Total Number of Passengers

Signal Failure	970
Staff Shortage	399
Staffing	410
Technical Issue	707
Traffic	314
Weather	995
Weather Conditions	377
Total	4,172

Anytime £209,309 ▲ £39.20

Advance £309,274 ▲ £17.61

This report addresses a few insights on the National Rail a company that provides business services to passenger train operators in England, Scotland and Wales.

These insights highlights the following:

1. The most popular routes - The 5 most popular routes are Manchester Piccadilly - Liverpool Lime Street with 4,628 passengers followed by London Euston - Birmingham New Street route with 4,209 passengers. In 3rd place is London Kings Cross - York route(3,922), 4th is London Paddington to Reading route(3,873) and the 5th most popular route is London St Pancras to Birmingham route with 3,471 passengers.
2. Peak Travel Time - Based on the insights, the peak travel time is 18:45 pm
3. Revenue - The advanced ticket type generates the highest revenue with over 309,000 followed by off-peak and the least is anytime. Furthermore, the Standard ticket class accounts for the highest revenue generator with 592,000 tickets while just about 150,000 first class ticket class are sold.
4. On-time performance is a major issue, quite a number of passengers do not have flight delays. However, a number of factors disrupts on-time performance like system failure, technical issue, weather etc